+44 7867 210875
a.grivokostopoulos@lse.ac.uk agrivokostopoulos.github.io aris-grivokostopoulos

Aristeidis Grivokostopoulos

Education

University Education

09/2024– Present MPhil/PhD Economic History, London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE), London, UK
- Thesis: "Hard Money, Soft Sovereignty: Peripheral Debt, Supervision, and Parliamentary Politics during the First Globalisation"; passed Graduate Research Committee (GRC) upgrade, May 2026
- Supervised by Profs. Albrecht Ritschl and Olivier Accominotti
- Uses parliamentary proceedings, archival sources, and bond-level market data; methods training in text analysis

09/2022– 06/2024 MSc Financial History, LSE, London, UK
- Distinction (inaugural cohort), completed part-time alongside full-time employment
- Modules in time series econometrics and history of global finance, with project work in R & Stata
- Dissertation on sovereign debt using textual analysis, supervised by Prof. Albrecht Ritschl (82%)

09/2015– 06/2018 BSc Economics, LSE, London, UK
- Advised by Prof. Silvana Tenreyro, external member of the Bank of England's Monetary Policy Committee
- Distinction in 6 of 12 modules, including Economic History, Principles of Economics, and Finance

Other Education

01/2027– 05/2027 Visiting Student Researcher (incoming), Department of Economics, UC Berkeley, Berkeley, CA
Faculty sponsor: Prof. J. Bradford DeLong

04/2026– 06/2026 PhD Course in "Empire, Trade, and Divergence in the Long 19th Century", Gothenburg, Sweden
- Doctoral course taught by Prof. Markus Lampe (WU Vienna), University of Gothenburg

10/2025– 06/2026 Principles of Teaching in Higher Education (TC501), LSE Eden Centre, London, UK
- Built around EC311: two seminar groups over 21 teaching weeks with three rounds of formative essay marking
- Developmental observation by Alex Standen PFHEA and disciplinary review by Cléo Chassonnery-Zaïgouche
- Awarded July 2026; recognised by Advance HE as Associate Fellow of the Higher Education Academy (AFHEA)

09/2023 Economics Summer School, University of Oxford, Oxford, UK
- Presented MSc dissertation research on sovereign debt in an Oxford monetary economics seminar
- Studied machine learning under Prof. Maximilian Kasy, including PAC learning and deep neural networks

09/2011– 06/2015 IB Diploma, St. Catherine's British (Embassy) School, Athens, Greece
- Graduated tied 1st in class and in the top 1% worldwide in the IB Diploma (44/45)

Research Experience

04/2026– Present Research Assistant, Data Science Institute, LSE, London, UK
- Writing-team member for the first LSE State of AI and Society report, a MacArthur-funded flagship publication synthesising evidence on AI's labour-market impacts for policymakers, researchers, industry, and civil society
- Leading the quantitative labour-market stream, from annotated bibliography and evidence synthesis to chapter framing on exposure, adoption, employment, wages, and global digital infrastructure

02/2026– Present Research Assistant, Hellenic Observatory, LSE, London, UK
- Bank of Greece Partnership
  - Co-author (with Monastiriotis & Chrysafis-Progopoulos) of "Measuring AI Exposure in the Greek Labour Market: A Comparative Analysis of Occupational Indices and Survey Evidence", a communication from the Hellenic Observatory to the Department of Economic Analysis and Research, Bank of Greece
  - Built a harmonised ISCO-08 dataset of AI occupational exposure indices and reviewed Greek survey evidence on AI adoption, attitudes, and workforce readiness
- Other Projects
  - Supporting Dr. Laliotis & Minos on "Economic Incentives and Vaccination", building a corpus of Greek regional news coverage and processing Cirium aviation arrivals data
  - Supporting Prof. Monastiriotis on a comparative industrial-policy project on small EU member states (Denmark, Portugal, Greece, and Latvia), contributing to source synthesis, draft-paper development, comparative analysis, fact-checking, bibliography preparation, tables, and visualisation design

01/2026– Present Research Assistant, Professor Sir Rick Trainor (EHS Centenary Grant), LSE, London, UK
- Primary researcher for Trainor's centenary paper "Whatever Happened to Social History? Social History in the Work of the Economic History Society, 1926–2026", presented at the EHS Centenary Conference (April 2026)
- Reviewed and synthesised un-digitised EHS Council minutes, AGM reports, and committee records (1926–2010) at the LSE Library; negotiated access to restricted materials via LSE Reader Services and current EHS leadership
- Classified 200+ articles from the Economic History Review and EHS conference programmes across 10 sample years (1927–2019) by topic and methodology to map century-long disciplinary trends
- Drafted the conference abstract, presentation deck, and speaker notes delivered at the conference

11/2025– 07/2026 Research Assistant, Prof. Almudena Sevilla, LSE Department of Social Policy, London, UK
- Building Employment Tribunal dataset on discrimination in higher education institutions
- Web scraping, data cleaning, and AI-assisted extraction (Gemini) of case details and outcomes

09/2023– 06/2024 Research Assistant, Professor Albrecht Ritschl, LSE, London, UK
- Recalculated monetary aggregates in Germany during the Great Depression for a book in progress
- Conducted archival research on practices to curb hyperinflation in Nazi-occupied Greece

Teaching Experience

10/2024– Present Teaching Assistant, LSE Economic History Department, London, UK
- EC311 (History of Economics: How Theories Change, conv. Dr. Cléo Chassonnery-Zaïgouche): lead two weekly seminar groups (21 teaching weeks); mark three rounds of formative essays and provide written feedback; received two formal teaching observations (Eden Centre and departmental)
- EC204 (History of Bubbles, Crashes and Inflations, conv. Profs. Ritschl, Accominotti & Dr. Lennard): led two class groups in LSE Summer School (June–July 2025, 3 weeks); marked formative, mid-session, and final exams
- EH390 (Stata Workshops), EH101 and EH102: additional teaching and marking duties across courses

10/2024– 06/2025 GTA Mentee, LSE Economic History Department, London, UK
- Shadowed and co-taught six seminars across two terms (EH101 & EH102) with mentors G. Salter and A. Park
- Departmental GTA Mentoring Scheme coordinated by Prof. Neil Cummins

Professional Experience

Tech

01/2024– 06/2025 Founder Associate, Operations, Genie (acqui-hired by Doss, summer 2025), London, UK
- Built the financial model, investor updates, and data room for fundraising and investor reporting
- Researched acquirer targets, built outreach lists, and drafted acquisition materials for the Doss transaction
- Led all-hands, offsites, salary reviews, and recruitment as acting people-operations lead
- Redesigned customer-support, merchant-onboarding, and internal data workflows to reduce turnaround times

05/2021– 07/2023 Operations Manager, Clausematch (acquired by Corlytics in July 2023), London, UK
- Managed the data room, diligence workflows, and investor requests across two company funding rounds
- Owned board decks, investor updates, and all-hands materials for company-wide and external reporting
- Led recruitment, onboarding, and people operations in a 70+ person scaling company across teams

06/2019– 12/2019 Intern, Finance Team, N26 (Neobank, raised $300M Series D from Insight and GIC), Berlin, Germany
- Prepared board reporting on Group performance, sourcing and modelling operating and financial data
- Built bottom-up revenue models and business cases for new product launches and existing products

Finance

08/2020– 12/2020 Visiting Analyst, Investment Team, Creandum (Early-stage VC), Stockholm, Sweden
- Conducted customer interviews and market diligence for live SafetyWing, Craft, and lemon.markets deals
- Worked across Series A, Seed, and Pre-Seed opportunities in insurtech, enterprise software, and fintech
- Built relationships with CEE investors and sourced startup leads and founder introductions across the region

03/2020– 07/2020 Visiting Analyst, Chief Investment Office, Speedinvest (Seed-stage VC), Vienna, Austria
- Built the GP's internal fund model for allocation optimisation and scenario analysis across portfolio deployment
- Drafted institutional LP due-diligence responses during fundraising, including for the EIF
- Conducted portfolio-based research on startup board composition, governance, and their importance

09/2018– 02/2019 Off-Cycle Analyst, FIG Banking, Morgan Stanley (Multinational investment bank), London, UK
- Prepared board and client materials for Benelux and EME FIG mandates, including Ethniki Insurance and eFront
- Supported live M&A and NPL mandates, including a €1.5bn reinsurer deal and a €3bn NPL portfolio

06/2017– 08/2017 Intern (Analyst), AnaCap Financial Partners (Private equity firm focused on fin. services), London, UK
- Built models for heidelpay, Barclays France, and NPLs across Private Equity and Credit Opportunities
- Prepared teasers, IC packs, offer letters, and diligence materials for live PE and credit deals

Research

Core Themes

Sovereign Debt; Fiscal Sovereignty; Contract Design; Creditor Supervision; External Fiscal Control; Financial Markets; Monetary Politics; Legislative Politics; Political Institutions; State-Contingent Debt; First Age of Globalisation; Text-as-Data; LLMs; History of Economic Thought

Publications

- "Made in Greece or Echoed from Europe? International Sentiment in the Tsouderos Archive and Kathimerini, 1931–1932" (forthcoming, Jahrbuch für Wirtschaftsgeschichte). LLM text-as-data on 814 pages of Tsouderos's correspondence with foreign officials and 2,283 pages of Kathimerini. International sentiment turns from May 1931 (Kreditanstalt), with breakpoints clustering around May, June, and September; the Sterling Crisis is associated with a further decline, controlling for other events and market indicators. Topic composition shifts in November–December 1931 toward debt relief and financial assistance; the domestic press moves later and more unevenly.

Thesis Projects

- "Sterling by Design: Contractual Standardisation and Currency Dominance on the London Stock Exchange, 1869–1929" (draft). Security-level panel of around 1,270 sovereign and colonial debt securities from the Investor's Monthly Manual. Sterling's share of income flows rose from 88 to 99 per cent as multi-currency clauses, bullion clauses, and non-sterling denominations disappeared. Breaks in contract terms begin in the early 1880s, ahead of several borrowers' gold adoption, and gold status shows no detectable association with sterling denomination. Within the Government of India, sterling loans yielded about 34 bp less than matched rupee loans.
- "Sovereign Debt Seniority and the Reintegration of Peripheral Borrowers: Evidence from International Financial Supervision in the Ottoman Empire, Egypt, and Greece, 1870–1914" (draft; 6th Macrohistory Conference, Bonn, September 2026). A defaulted sovereign needs new money to return, new money needs priority, and the holders already in place pay part of the cost. Under the Law of Control of 1898 the 2.5% Guaranteed Loan entered above the whole stack, while the old gold loans were ranked in place: the senior Monopoly Loan of 1887 yielded more than the junior Rentes of 1889 in 65 of 96 months in 1900–1907, against none of 35 months before default. Egypt after 1880 and the Ottoman Empire after 1881 are the comparisons.
- "Permeable Patronage: Fiscal Crises and Domain-Specific Defection in the Greek Parliament, 1875–1905" (draft; GRC submission, May 2026). New roll-call dataset from digitised Hellenic Parliament proceedings: 755 nominal divisions, 132,246 MP–vote observations, 1,049 matched MPs. Patronage discipline holds by default and breaks at constituency-targeting fiscal bills after the 1893 default: in the six core currant divisions of 1894–95, high-currant Peloponnesian deputies broke with their bloc in 31 per cent of votes, against 3 per cent for low-currant deputies. The break is domain-specific rather than a shift from clientelism to programmatic politics.
- "Between Civilisation and Constitution: Greek Parliamentary Debates on Gold Standard Adoption, 1875–1885" (draft; WEast Workshop, Belgrade, August 2026). Reads 988 sittings of the Hellenic Parliament alongside the loan and bank statutes in the gazette. From 1877 forced circulation was a conditional state: the bank conventions tied its duration to the state's debt to the National and Ionian Banks and named no instrument to end it. The 1884 loan law listed the lift as a use of the proceeds without fixing a day, and Trikoupis told the chamber it would follow automatically once the money was deposited. Convertibility was in effect a term of the state's borrowing from its own banks. The chamber divided on loans, timing, and the bank conventions, but no deputy tabled a bill, amendment, or interpellation on gold, silver, or bimetallism as a regime.

Other Research

- "Whatever Happened to Social History? Social History in the Work of the Economic History Society, 1926–2026" (with Prof. Sir Rick Trainor, LSE). Examines the EHS's century-long relationship with social history using un-digitised Council minutes, AGM records, and sampled Economic History Review articles and conference programmes (1927–2019). Finds thematic persistence of social topics (labour, demography, health, gender) alongside a methodological shift toward quantitative methods; the journal and conference diverged in approach while converging on the same subjects. Presented at the EHS Centenary Conference (April 2026).
- "A Predictable Crisis? Deposit Losses during the German Banking Crisis of 1931" (with Philip Fliers, Queen's University Belfast; draft, June 2026). Bimonthly German bank balance sheets (1925–1934; 8,616 bank–month observations). Severe deposit losses were system-wide rather than confined to failed banks, highly predictable from pre-crisis funding structure as early as 1927, and differed by maturity. Aggregate contraction coexisted with predictable deposit gains at other banks.
- "Regional GDP in Greece, 1900–2015" (Hellenic Observatory, with Prof. Vassilis Monastiriotis; Prof. Joan R. Rosés as external adviser). First NUTS-2 regional GDP estimates for Greece, built for the Rosés–Wolf European regional GDP database, which does not yet cover Greece. Geary–Stark estimates for 1900–1938 from the 1920 and 1930 industrial and commercial censuses, spliced to published regional figures and to ARDECO and Eurostat regional accounts from 1950; interwar agricultural output from Socrates Petmezas's prefecture-level series (University of Crete).

Academic Activity

Conferences

- 6th Macrohistory Conference, CASFI (Bonn, Germany, 09/2026): Paper Presentation
- EHS Annual Conference (London, UK, 04/2026): Paper Presentation
- WEHC (Lund, Sweden, 07/2025): Poster Presentation
- WEAI 100th Annual Conference (San Francisco, CA, 06/2025): Paper Presentation

Workshops

- WEast Workshop (Belgrade, Serbia, 08/2026): Paper Presentation
- Workshop on the Economic History of the Mediterranean (UC3M Getafe, 07/2026): Paper Presentation
- The Financial History of War and Peace (LSE, 06/2026): Paper Presentation
- Mary Morgan Retirement Workshop (LSE, 06/2026): Paper Presentation
- Machine Learning and Big Data in Economic History (Hohenheim, Germany, 02/2026): Paper Presentation
- EHS Residential Training Course (Radcliffe House, University of Warwick, UK, 12/2025): Paper Presentation
- SMGS Graduate Research Colloquium (Reading, UK, 05/2025): Paper Presentation
- YSI-EHES Economic History Graduate Webinar Series (Virtual, 05/2025): Paper Presentation

Seminars

- Economic and Social History Graduate Seminar (Nuffield College, Oxford, 12/2026): Paper Presentation
- Hellenic Observatory Research Seminar (LSE, 12/2025): Paper Presentation
- DSI PhD Affiliate Research Spotlight (LSE, 11/2025) and Lightning Talks (LSE, 02/2025): Presentations

Academic Positions

01/2026–Present Inaugural DTP Student Representative, LSE ESRC Doctoral Training Partnership, London, UK
- Inaugural student representative, drawing on roles as LSESU PGR Officer and ESRC-funded doctoral researcher
- Attend termly DTP Management Committee meetings, representing doctoral researchers' views

10/2025–09/2026 GTA Officer, LSESU, London, UK
- Represented GTAs on LSE committees, including the Research Degrees Sub-committee and Academic Board
- Led the UKRI stipend campaign with UCU; coordinated GTA contract mapping across 25 departments

10/2025–09/2026 Writing Advisor, LSE Economic History Department, London, UK

09/2025–Present LSE Graduate Economic History Seminar, LSE, London, UK
- Co-convener of weekly PhD seminar series (Autumn 2025), managing applications and programme organisation

Academic Affiliations

01/2026–Present Student Representative and Colloquium Co-organiser, Society for Modern Greek Studies, UK
- Student representative on the SMGS Executive Committee, contributing to postgraduate engagement
- Co-organised the 2026 SMGS Graduate Research Colloquium (Reading, 06/2026)

12/2024–Present PhD Affiliate, Data Science Institute, LSE, London, UK
- Interdisciplinary network holding research seminars and workshops on machine learning

12/2024–Present Doctoral Affiliate, Hellenic Observatory, LSE, London, UK
- One of two doctoral candidates selected for the inaugural 2024/25 pilot scheme

Awards

09/2024–09/2028 ESRC Doctoral Training Partnership (DTP) Award, LSE, London, UK

12/2024 MSc Financial History Dissertation Prize, LSE, London, UK
- Highly recommended for the MSc Financial History Dissertation Prize

05/2015 Winner, Generation €uro Students' Award, European Central Bank (ECB), Frankfurt, Germany
- Awarded first place in a Euro-wide team competition on monetary policy, received prize from Mario Draghi
- Led a group of 5 students that predicted the ECB's decision during tense Greek government negotiations

Skills

Languages: Greek (Native), English (Native), German (studying for B2)

Technical: Python, R, Stata, SQL, JavaScript; pandas, scikit-learn, tidyverse; Excel